Foreword

Today I make my first entry for 1950-1951. I want this to be the most complete diary I've ever kept, so I've made some resolutions.

First, I'm going to have the picture and name of every person who is a part of G.H.H.S. this year.

Second, I'm going to get pictures of as many classes as I can get — I want to make sure I don't forget some of those every day happenings.

Third, I'm going to keep a faithful record of all events.

Fourth, when I get this all done, I'm going to see that every one of you can have a copy of my

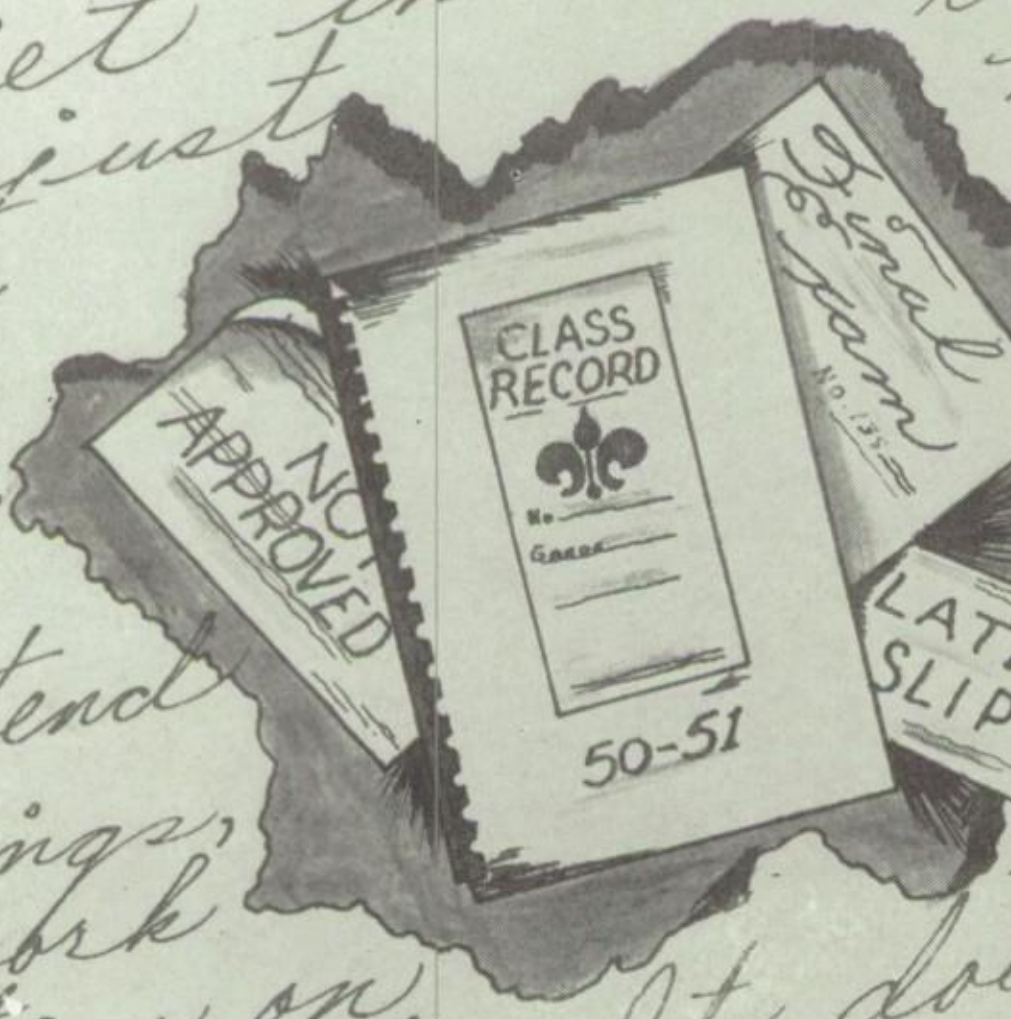
Dear Diary: Seminar tonight! I guess we better be kids had better quiet in the halls. I don't how just find see time they teach, the to meet- attend and ings, all the work special time on projects. It doesn't matter what is going on, a dance, a club activity, you always find your teachers working side by side because that is the way of our



Faculty

To The Student Body:

A new world is struggling to be born. This new world will be the kind of world that you, the students of today and tomorrow, are equipped to build and to live in. You will need social vision, moral stamina, mastery of self, and technical competence for this task.

Earl H. Babcock,
Superintendent

Seniors of 1951:

Today your country needs your services. If I had one wish to make to you as you respond to your country's call, it would be that each of you have a deep and abiding faith; faith that man's struggle for freedom will continue to be forward. There have been times when man's right to search for and enjoy liberty have been challenged. That right is being challenged today. In such times, men who have faith in what is right and refuse to sacrifice principles are the men who live in history.

Social Studies

No homework for MISS BELL'S American Problems class tonight. Tomorrow we have a panel discussion on "Who works harder, men or women?" Her U. S. History students have it a little tougher though. Big test!

Projects are due Friday for MISS CAMPBELL'S World History class. I can just picture the sophs in line at the book store on Thursday waiting for their poster paper. What a display of art that will be!

Civics students are studying the constitution now. You ought to see their version of certain sections! MR. COHRS also teaches Community Civics and Economics.

Last fall the girls really went for World History and English Lit. when they saw MR. HEKHUIS. They hated to see him leave for service at the end of the semester. MR. WARD is now teaching his history classes.

Some U. S. History students struggled through a 20 page exam. They have MR. HICKS to thank for this. I'm sure they did!

Middle right: Solid comfort!

Bottom: Project day! Get a load of the art!

Languages

MISS DYKHUIZEN'S English classes are learning how to diagram sentences. Let's see, the subjective complement modifies the subject and the verb is in apposition with the direct object. Oh, I'm all confused.

MISS WENTLAND is having her English class study for a test which she promises to give next Monday. The object of the test seems to be to see how much the kids know about Shakespeare's "Julius Caesar."

Didn't hear whether or not MISS NYLAND'S English class dramatized "Velvet Pants," but suppose they did. Bet it wasn't so good as when we did it! Her history class is studying about that Egyptian queen (can't remember what her name was).

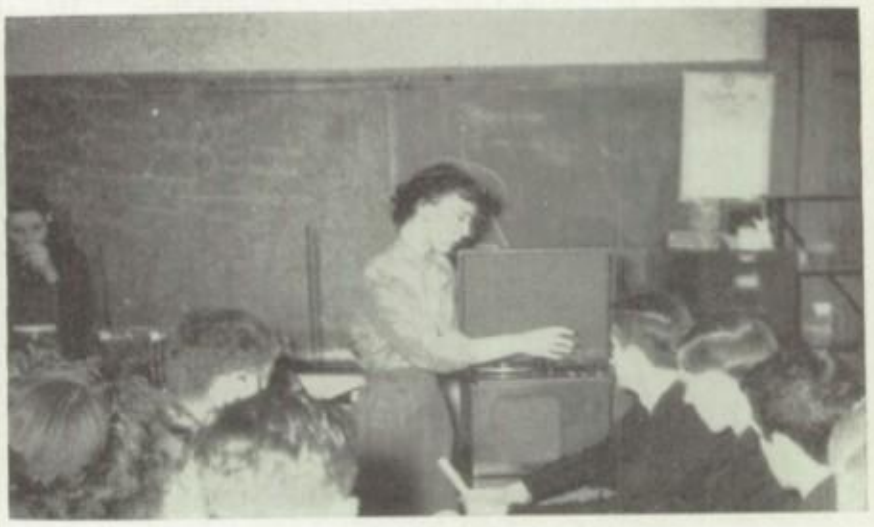
According to reports, the juniors heard "The Cask of Amontillado" again this year. Now they are going to do "Hamlet." Hope MISS SCHUTT reads the Ophelia scene for them, too.

Seniors in Comp and Rhet class have started their task which will take six weeks — that of writing a 3000 word composition. Guess MISS KERTON likes to keep them busy.

Upper: That's a silly question.

Middle: Better hurry! Look what time it is!

Bottom: No wonder you can't find it; you're on the wrong page.



and Speech

Gwen Gwinn

Donna M. Loew

Ardena Leer

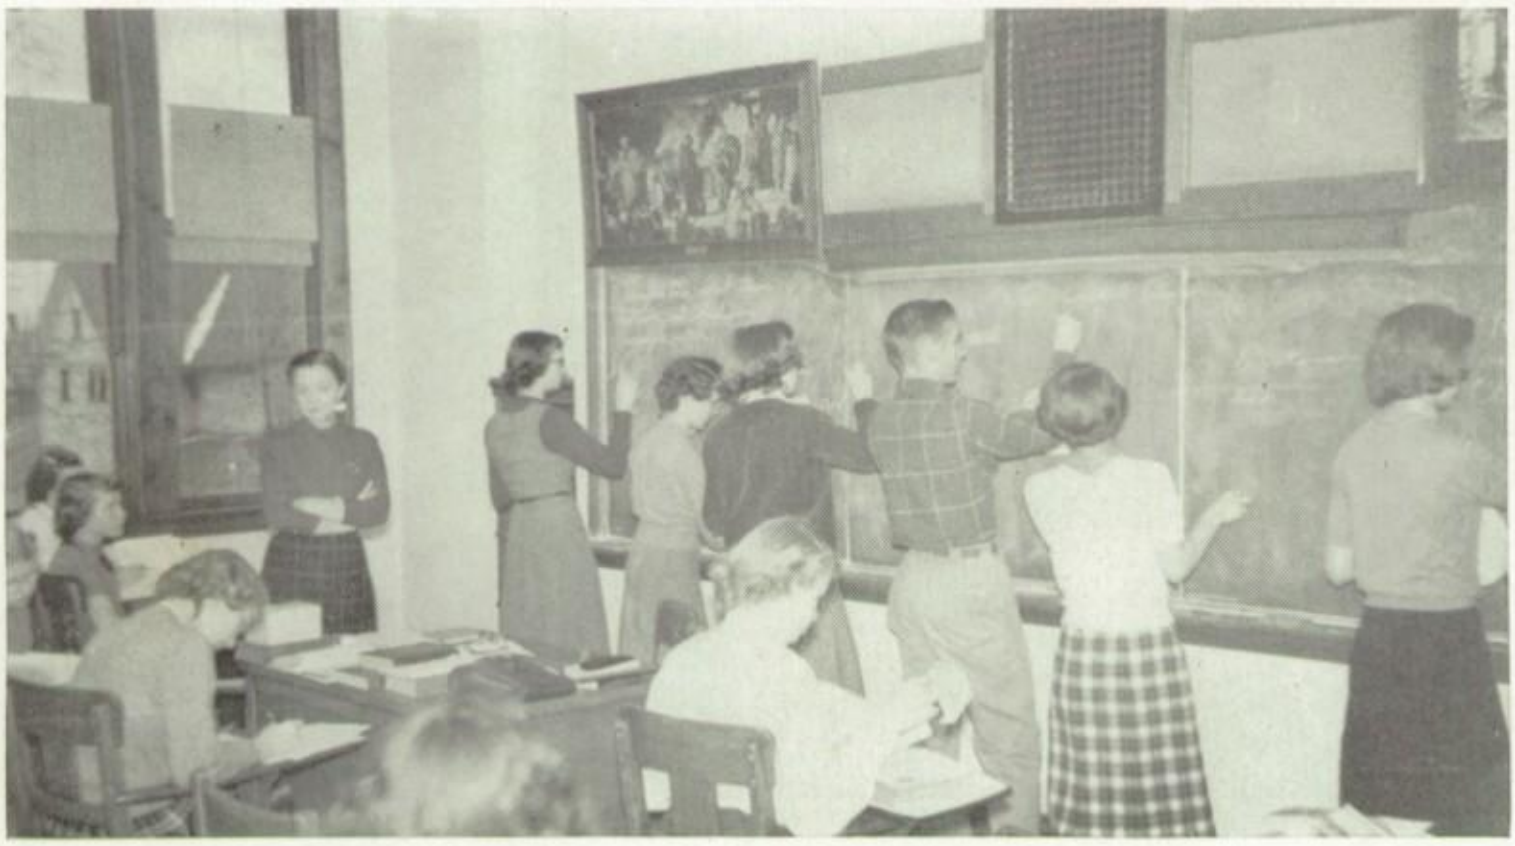
Hattie E. Young

Was talking with one of MISS LEER'S Latin scholars. They are now spending their evenings translating "Caesar's Gaulic Wars." I understand that they are going to have "ten little easy sentences" on that test Monday.

MISS YOUNG is always busy. First, she writes slips for a dozen girls, then she dashes to a class to teach Spanish, then she dashes back to her office to answer the telephone, then . . .

The kids in MISS GWINN'S speech class are having fun writing plays and giving speeches. Giving speeches reminds me of the first time I gave a speech. I . . . . .

MISS LOEW seems to be the detective around school—always on the trail of those who have books overdue. But seriously, we surely appreciate her when we're looking for books or magazines which we cannot find.



Upper left: Would you like to have it renewed?

Upper right: I wanna hear it again!

Bottom: Hey, what's the word for water?

Mathematics

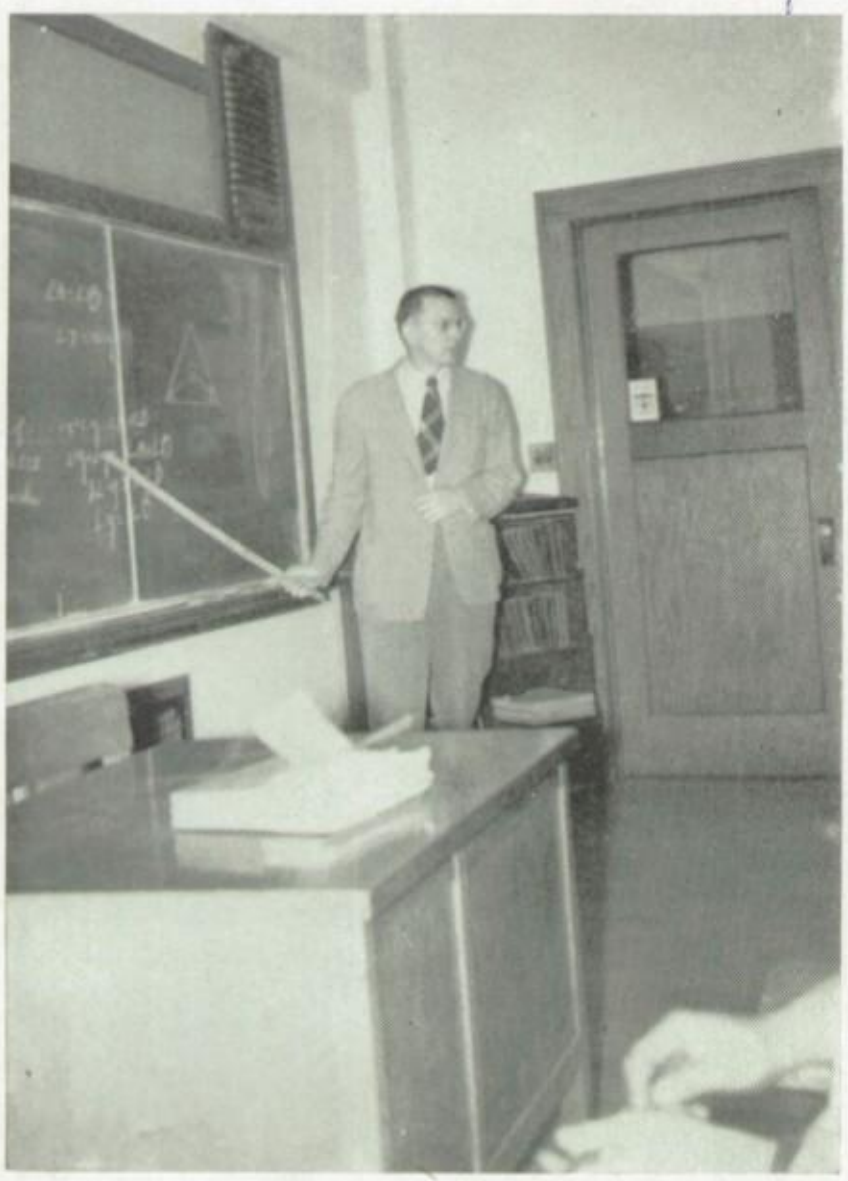
Harold S. Fisher

Ernest L. Swanson

E. L. Swanson

MR. FISHER makes math as easy as X + Y = ??? Do any of the "brains" in his class know??? Or the pythagorean theorem?

MR. SWANSON has kept me burning midnight oil with his trig assignments. I wonder if he makes his other math students suffer so?



Middle left: Now, where did this step come from?

Lower left: Girls, I said page 385.

Lower right: Hey, you aren't supposed to use your book!

and Science

Those poor freshmen! They had to watch MR. KJOLHEDE dissect a frog in biology today. Wonder what their appetites were like at noon?

This year is no better than the rest. MR. VAN DER KOLK still has those kids in chem lab who think it is a labORATORY instead of a LABORatory. It's fun though!

MR. SANDERS must have quite the life — teaching physics, driving, general science, and aviation. I wouldn't want to be in his shoes when he is teaching some of those kids how to drive.

Ted Kjolhede

Ted Kjolhede

Frank Sanders

Dick Van Der Kolk

Upper left: Wipe that acid up fast!

Lower right: Now, let me tell you.

Commercial

Flora L. Thoma

Margaret Young

Leone Walters

Oh dear, just remembered that I was supposed to bring some No. 6 envelopes to typing class tomorrow. Better hurry down and get some right away because I don't think MRS. THOMA will especially appreciate my coming to class without them.

Just got back and am all out of breath. Now I have to get at that bookkeeping which doesn't want to balance for me. Wish MISS WALTERS were here to help me.

The shorthand which MISS YOUNG taught me comes in mighty handy when I write notes. The only trouble is I can't read my own writing half the time.

Though MR. WARD teaches History most of the day, our photographer caught him in his Commercial Arithmetic class, so we have included him with this department.

Middle left: Those papers can't be that bad!
Lower left: Now, where is that error?
Middle right: The debits just won't equal the credits.
Lower right: Keep your fingers crossed.

and Vocational

And what can I do for you today?

MR. HODGES doesn't teach any classes, but he is the Director of Vocational and Adult Education. If any of us ever go to night school, he will probably be the one to help us make arrangements.

MR. CHOJNOWSKI'S Retail Selling class has been practicing their salesmanship around school. They have made successes of many projects, such as selling ball-point pens, giving dances, etc.

Was trying to find out what MR. JACOBS' job is and was told that he is the trade and industrial co-ordinator. He is a big help to those boys who are working in factories on the apprenticeship program.

Lewis H. Hodges

James E. Jacobs

Walter A. Chojnowski

You have a point there.

Let's get on the stick.

Homemaking and

Avis Towers

Viva Shell

Ate at cafeteria this noon. Had a good lunch. Thanks go to MISS TOWERS and all her helpers.

Girls who are taking Home Ec. from MISS SHELL say they have learned how to press, baste, and rip. Oh, well, that's good practice!

Lower right: But, Miss Towers, it all stuck to the bottom.

Industrial Arts

While I was in the shop this morning, I saw MR. OVERHOLT demonstrating to the auto mechanics class how to install a piston in a motor. Some day I'll probably go to a garage and one of those boys will fix my car. (Heaven forbid!)

Boys, or "birds" as they are called, in mechanical drawing get their training from MR. KING. Some of them will probably be draftsmen, and who knows but what one of them might be the designer of the first rocket to the moon.

Shop boys got too much sawdust on the floor today. MR. THOMPSON is having a couple of "volunteers" come in at 3:30 to sweep it up. (Have fun!)

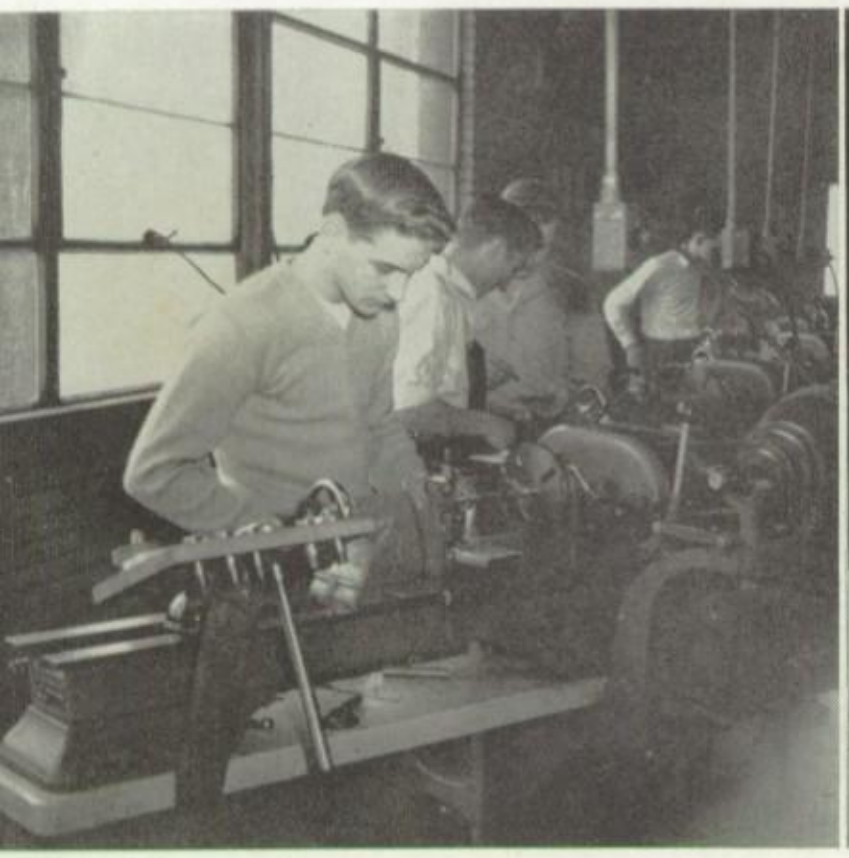
Can usually find MR. ARNOLD in the machine shop explaining to the boys how to operate different machines. From what I've seen, they have made some mighty handy gadgets.

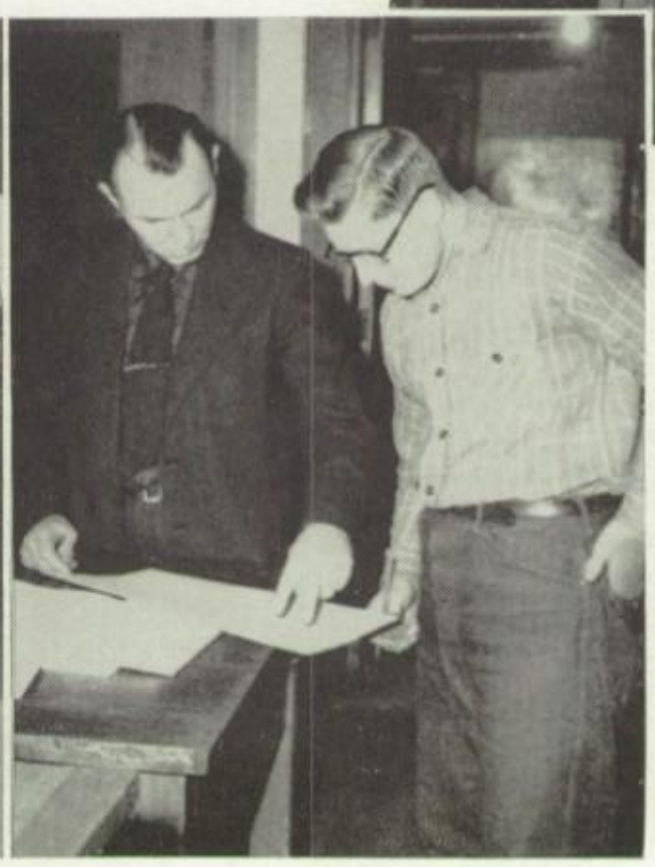
Lee Arnold

Kenneth A. King

Maurice C. Overholt

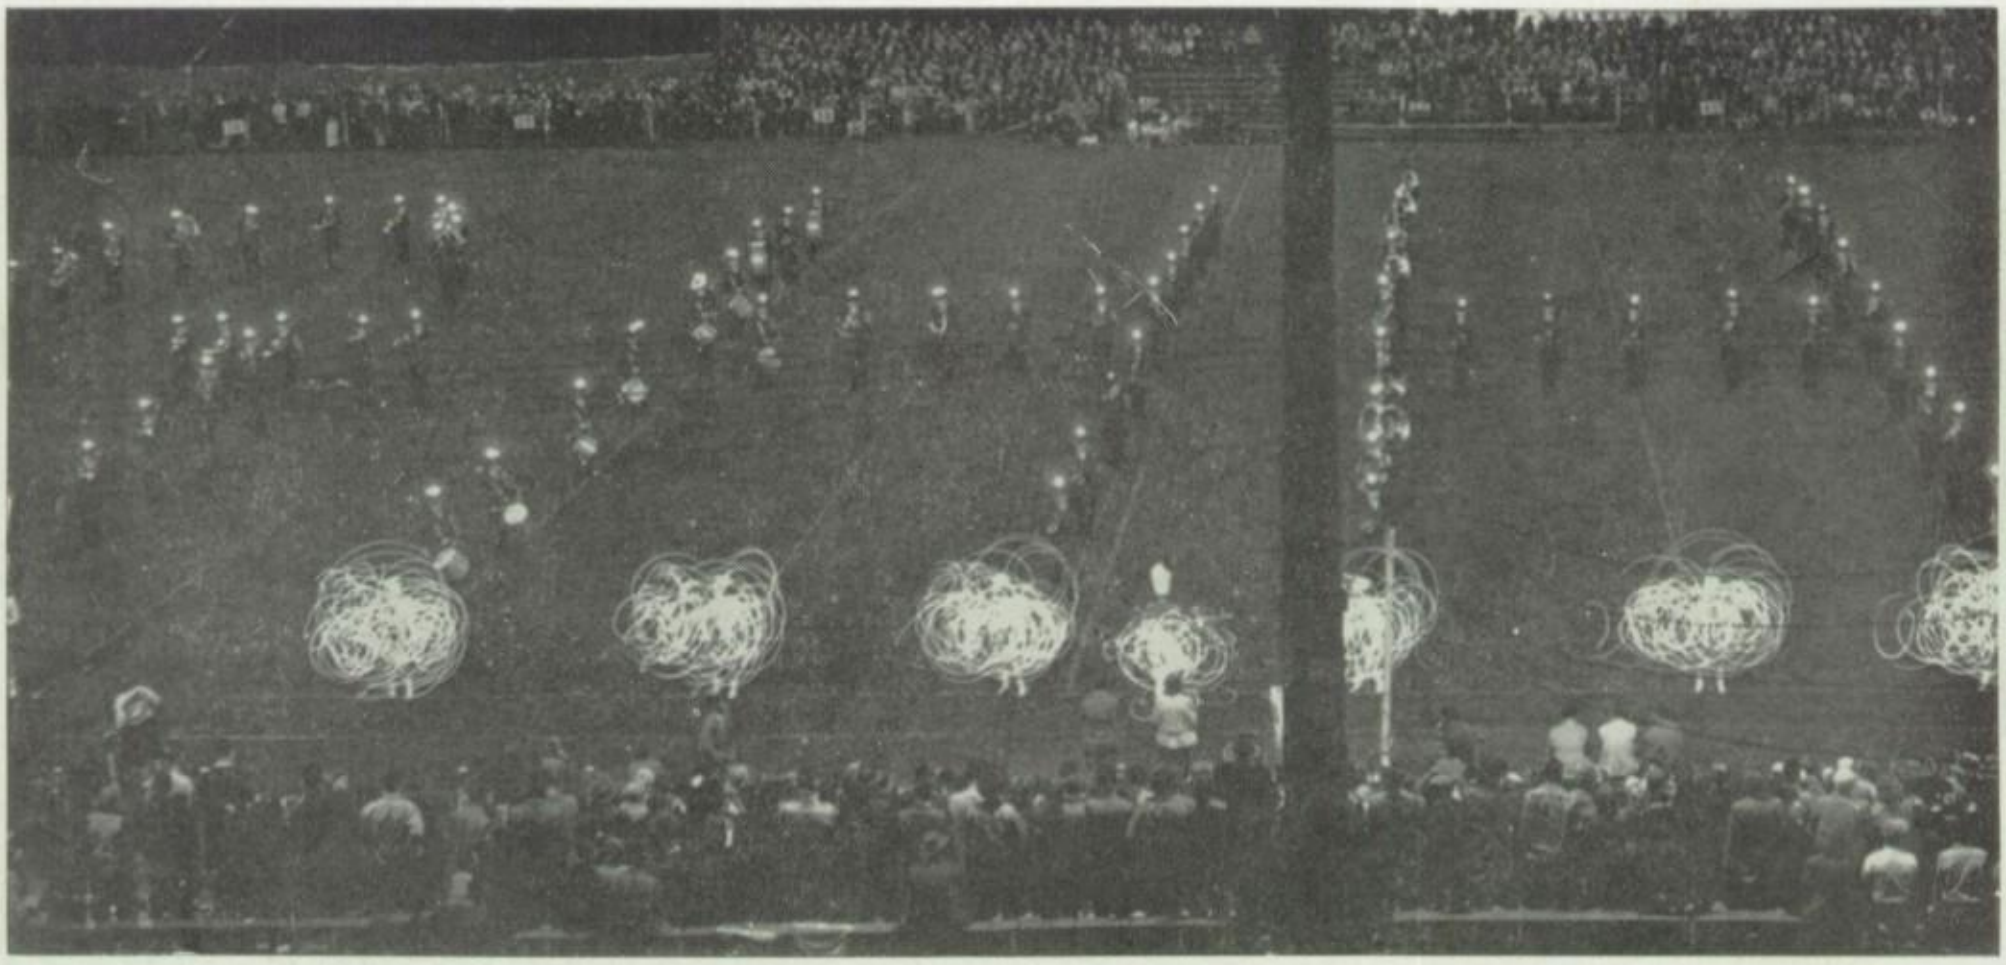
Upper right: The old master painter.
Middle right: Must be something loose somewhere!!!
Lower left: Boy, is this tedious!?
Lower center: Look at those eraser marks.





Forrest S. Thompson

Fine



Bannister Merwin

Harold H. Luoma

The band has done much to raise our school spirit this year. We particularly enjoy it at assemblies and football games. Behind the band, striving to make it a better organization, is MR. MERWIN, the director. Because the band has grown so in the last few years, it was necessary for Mr. Merwin to have an assistant; this position is filled by MR. LUOMA.

Upper: "Hail to the Blue and Gold."
Lower right: Not too loud, band.

Arts

"Now, you didn't squint." "But Miss Edge, I shut my eyes completely."

One of the first things that MISS EDGE teaches her art students is how to squint. What they use this for is beyond me, but anyhow . . .

Our school wouldn't be what it is without the choir. MR. QUACKENBUSH did much to make ours an outstanding organization. To our great regret, he left us at the end of the first semester to go into business. MISS BENNETT has now taken over and is doing a fine job.

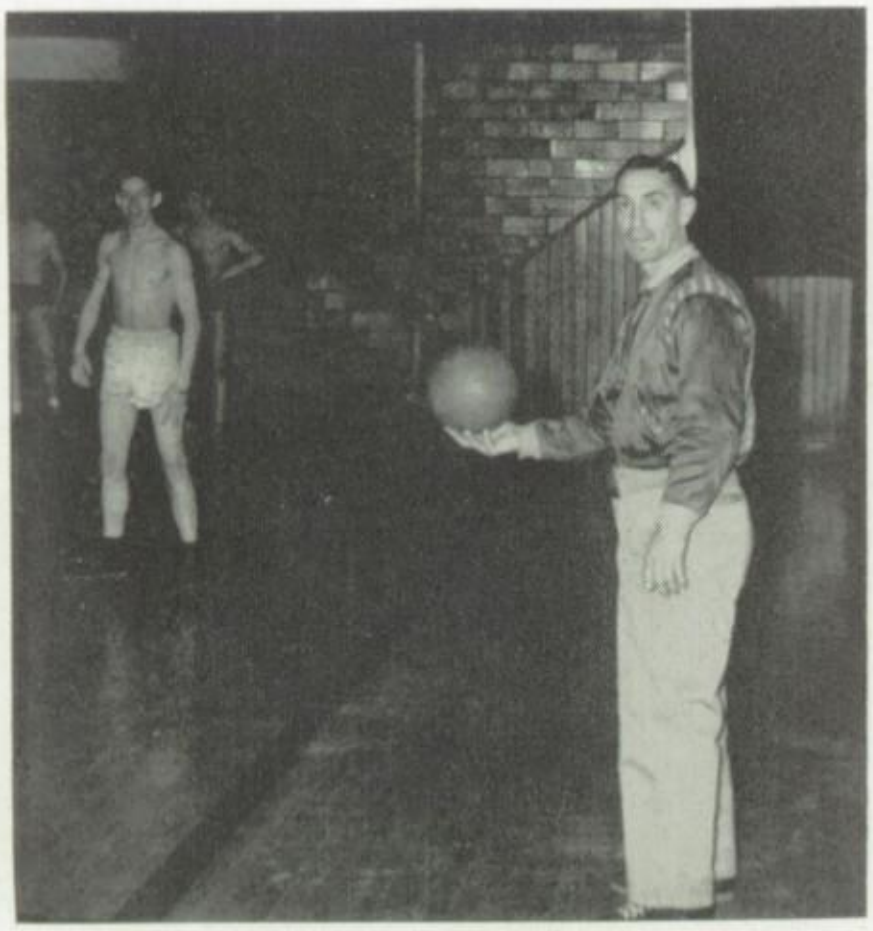
Cora Edge

Palmer Quackenbush

Lower left: Let's ALL sing.

Lower right: Miss Bennett directs the choir.

Our Health



Look, one hand!

Helen-Joan Nussdorfer

Ray Schaubel

Mrs. Munro

What, no pulse!

Welcome back!

MR. SLUKA'S gym class is going to feature some boxing matches tomorrow. Wish I could get a ringside seat. Better yet, I wouldn't mind being referee.

Today MISS NUSSDORFER gave instructions for badminton. "Watch the birdie!" Don't believe the courts in our gym are long enough because the birdie always manages to "fly" out.

What a line of boys there was in front of MR. SCHAUBEL'S office the other morning waiting for their absence slips! Could "buck fever" have caused their absence?

MRS. MUNRO has taught her nurses' aides many of the fundamentals of nursing, such as taking pulses (as if they didn't know how!), giving backrubs, emptying bedpans, etc.

Class Prophecy

It is now the year 2,000, and as I, Lois DeKraker, a world-famous lecturer, look back through the years, I recall that in 1970 I was sent on a lecturing tour around the globe, where I met many of my old friends from the class of '51.

Dear Diary:

I awoke early this morning and had my chauffeur, Don Zant, drive me to the first stop on my tour, Ferrysburg, Michigan. It has become a large metropolis since my high school days, now having a population of nearly 5,000 and also a newspaper. Wayne Van Dongen insisted that I stop at his house for tea after he was through delivering the Ferrysburg Daily News, but I had to move on out of the state to Cleveland, Ohio.

We had a nice trip thus far except for one incident. It was quite terrifying, and I was nervous for quite a while afterwards. Marjory Quimby was driving her 1970 Cadilac and smashed right into Florie Boon's beautiful 1928 Ford. He felt very bad about it, because he had put so much money into it; but Ken Achterhof, who was with him at the time, comforted him until Police Commissioner, Pat Kamhout, arrived.

We reached Cleveland a day earlier than we had expected, so that afternoon I decided to go to a movie. Pete Avery was running the movie machine, and on the screen I was surprised to see Jim Sprott, who had the leading romantic role, and Caroline Zuidema. After the movie, we decided to walk around the downtown section of Cleveland.

The first place we passed, right next to the theater, was the Beverly's Reducing School, run by the Misses Bloomquist, Butson, and Gustafson. We also passed Jane Crum's bakery, and Marian Chapman and Agnes Miller's little place of business where they SELL the free samples they've been saving ever since their high school days.

We stopped a few minutes to speak with two of our old friends, Gayle and Glenn Johnson. Glenn is now swimming coach at the new high school in Grand Haven. Glenn and Gayle were on a shopping tour in Cleveland.

I gave a lecture that night, and afterwards I was happy to greet some more of my former classmates. Sally Baker had her whole Nurses' Aid crew there, consisting of Joanne Feller, Alvina Grimm, Barbara Collins, Marlene Spencer, and Marian Overzet.

Marian Boer and Gene Barrows also came up to see me. They are now preaching Daily Messages in Cleveland. Marvin Decker invited us to see the city in one of his new city buses.

I left early to register in the tourist cabins run by Jim Wray, just outside of town. The next morning we left early for our long run to New York City. About mid-afternoon the car started sputtering and finally stopped. While we were standing by the side of the road trying to find the trouble, a taxi stopped. I recognized the driver to be none other than Janice Barger! She's running her own private taxi service for people who live in the country, so they can get into town. She really had a load too. Everybody got out when they saw me standing there — Shirley Prahin, Doris Buckner, and Barbara Borck.

After mourning over our empty gas tank for some time, we decided we'd have to hoof it to the nearest gas station. After walking about a mile, we felt a gush of wind go by and, after regaining our senses, noticed that it was Dolores Young on her new motorcycle.

When we arrived at the gas station, Don spent a few hours visiting with the owner, Stewart McLinda, while I strolled along the country side to observe the scenery. I hurried up a hill when I saw Ed Klukos sitting there sketching. He said he spent all his spare time there. He told us that every Sunday afternoon Rose Kline could be seen down below, practicing shooting puffed rice out of a gun.

Just then I was frightened to death when an airplane swooped low over our heads. Ed explained that it was Clancy Laman. He owns his own airplane and takes trial flights every afternoon.

Soon the car was checked, and we started on our way for New York. We arrived in time for me to give my afternoon lecture. At night we attended one of the women's wrestling matches that can be seen on television. Peggy Lyon and Irene VerDuin were wrestling and Meredith Blanchard was referee. A doctor was called when Peggy flipped Irene and she lay breathless on the floor. Don Harvey was the doctor who responded to the call.

Our car had to be taken to a garage in New York, so we had to remain there a few days. The second night we were walking down Fifth Avenue and decided to stop in the Blue Moon Night Club. When we got in, we were surprised to find Bill Holman, the trumpeter, on the bandstand. At the end of the number he stopped to talk and explained that after graduating, he and a few friends got together and started a night club. Among them were Craig Kammeraad, Tom Puleo, singer, Marlyn Sims, piano player, Earl Williams, and Jerry Wipp, manager and assistant manager.

He also told us that our friend, John Butcher, had just opened up a new hideout in the alley off Mary Decker's Pet Shop, and across the street from Don Brems' Cigar Store. John was the boss and under him were Bob Bell, Howard Teasley, and Casey VerBerkmoes.

We left Bill to attend a party Alice Sutcliff was giving in her mansion in the swanky section of New York City. When we arrived, she greeted us by going through a long list of old acquaintances we would see there. She said Fred Borchers would be there as he had just arrived home from a business trip. He manufactures ladies' hose. Ken Buikema was there looking for a date, and he stopped to point out some of our old friends. He said Glenn Doering was running a Muscle Building School in town; Carol DeGlopper and Nancy Fisher were head attendants in the local insane asylum; Jay Hamm was head of a meat packing company, and Jackie Hirdes was in charge of the ham stringing department. Joyce Holman was a big lumber dealer; Donna McFadden, Jackie McLellen and Irma Hackstock were prominent secretaries for Connie Modrack's advertising firm, and Andrew Nelson was manufacturing sleeveless sweaters. They were all at the party.

We saw the editor of our annual, Jim Skidmore, there too. He is now working for Jack Weatherbee's soap factory, writing soap jingles. He said Ray Pavlin was also working for the same firm, posing for pictures on billboards, blowing soap bubbles.

We also saw Duane Bowditch, who invited us to the Hot Rod races the following afternoon. He, John Peterson, Trudy Blasky, and Jim Vickers were racing. Jim was entering one of his own home-made cars.

After leaving the party, we were walking back to our hotel about 12:30 when we heard someone shouting. It was Georgia Kruizenga on the street corner, selling the late edition of a newspaper.

The next morning we had to pick up our car, and whom should we meet, bright and early, cleaning the top and middle story windows of the Empire State Building without a ladder, but Edward Ebel. We also met Ken Ennenga on his way to the bowling alley. He had to practice for a professional bowling match that night.

Nancy Lubben and Janet Meyer were out too. That night they were to play in a symphony, which Nancy was conducting. They invited us to stay for it, but we had to take the boat at 2:00 to go to Europe.

While we were on the boat, we met many of our friends from the class of '51 who were taking their vacation in Europe. When we were a few miles from shore, we noticed someone flashing signals from farther out. The captain told us it was John Angus. He has been flashing SOS signals from his yacht for fifteen years.

Our trip was really very interesting. Elwood Leslie was on his vacation. He runs sightseeing cruises off Miami Beach.

Muriel Hastings and Nancy Strong were there too. They were on a vacation from Warbler's Tea Room, which they own and operate in Miami.

Carol Hostetter was on her way to England to a meeting of the U. N., of which she is the chief delegate from the United States.

We passed one cabin with an open door. In the cabin we saw Relma Mabry who had just dropped in to talk to Herman Rycenga. She was talking with her Southern drawl and his head was beginning to nod in a state of drowsiness.

Lois More was also there. She spends all of her time traveling between New York and Europe, since she is re-writing the American Problems text book and likes peace and quiet during her laboring hours.

Allan Hartman was on his way to Siberia to preach at a prison camp.

Jackie Dirkse and Vern Simpson were on the boat too. They have no permanent residence now that he has retired. They just spend their remaining days traveling.

We had been watching Leonard Scott, who had been writing ever since we got on the boat. He didn't seem to notice us until we spoke. He explained that he was re-writing the dictionary and so hadn't noticed us.

Far out in the sea we could see a large Coast Guard ship. As we approached it, we noticed Violet Stang behind it in her little rowboat.

We were surprised to see Jim Swart there. He's the bus driver between Grand Haven and Grand Rapids and he was on his vacation.

Our attention was called to a loud squeal. We couldn't decide if it was a squeal of delight or terror, so we rushed over to where there was a crowd of girls. We found that the center of attraction was Tom Blaney, the lady killer. Loretta Tuin and Shirley Oltman had nearly passed out when he winked at them.

We arrived in Europe and traveled first in France. I was surprised to find that in Paris where I was lecturing, Rog DeKiep was also giving a speech on Harley Davidsons, and Nancy Brant was on a cross country tour giving Red Cross speeches.

I saw JoAnn Noordhof in the audience. Later she came up and asked for my autograph. She's a model in Paris now.

After the lecture, we drove past Harvey Hammond's Salon. He's a romantic hair stylist.

We went through Europe and returned a few weeks later to arrive in Hollywood, California. We met Marv VanWeelden, who seems to be very busy now days. He's Mary Grace Yemc's producer and is trying to arrange for a contract for her and Gary Crosby to sing on Decca records.

He told us Eldonna Feenstra and Sharon Toxopeus were telephone operators in Hollywood. They're waiting for some talent scout to discover them and put them in pictures.

It seems Doris Bosma is making quite a roll of green-backs, sketching for Walt Disney.

We left Hollywood and headed for Kansas City, where I had an appointment for another lecture. On the road we saw Phyllis Frietchen hitch-hiking back to Texas where her husband has been permanently stationed after deciding to make the Air Force his career. Al Baldus was also hitch-hiking back to camp farther down the road. He too must have found a home in the army.

We stopped along the road to eat at Lynn and Mary's Burger Shop. We had to stop across the street at Chuck Scott's popcorn wagon too, to avoid hard feelings.

As we whizzed through the countryside, we passed a riding stable owned by Charlene Dusterwinkle who was practicing lassoing her horse.

Having arrived in Kansas City early, we bought a news-paper in the corner drugstore where Asa McReynolds waited on us. He has never lost that blush.

On the sports page of the paper we noticed Emery Holzinger's and Mike Czinder's pictures. They've become quite popular in major league baseball. There was quite a write-up about Bob Urbanik too. He plays for the Chicago Bears.

We also noticed Augusta Schroeder's name listed under the next panel discussion for the Chicago Roundtable.

On the middle page, we noticed a picture of two girls who looked familiar. Yes, that's it! The Seitsema twins, posing for Richard Hudnut ads.

In the corner of the page we saw a notice that there was to be a fox hunt led by Sandy Pellegrom who would sound the French horn at 3:00 sharp.

After giving my lecture, I traveled on homeward bound. As we waited for a freight train we waved to Ken Retzlof who was riding on one of the box cars.

After a long drive, we arrived in Holland. We drove through the most elaborate part of town where Ethel Vozar and Mary Bulthuis live.

We reached Grand Haven late that night.

Early the next morning we hurried over to the new high school where I was to give a lecture. As we went past the civics room we noticed Gordon Dusterwinkle still there in the front row.

We visited with Rita Mahder who now teaches in Mr. Swanson's place. Betty Streeting was taking Miss Nussdor-fer's place as gym teacher.

We hadn't been in Grand Haven for so long that we had to pay visits to a few of our friends. We stopped for gas at Chet's Auto Shop, of which Chester Stolarz was president and head mechanic.

Mary Tinholt and Sandy Rooks still live here although they're operating chain dimestores all over the country.

We passed Donna Katt's house and saw her in her front yard teaching her two children how to twirl a baton.

George Hendrych and Jim Fett now own and operate their own grocery store across the street from Deiter's grocery. Barb Boot and Dick Edstrom have been transferred from there to the meat counter at Sabo's Grocery and Delivery Service. Howie DeWitt, who used to operate the meat counter, is now opening his own slaughter house.

Lois Wagonmaker stopped to welcome us back on her rounds of reading gas meters. She told us that Bob Snoek had just thrown a big party at the country club, which he now owns.

Judge Fred Miles was just re-elected to a sixth term.

She said Nelson VanLeeuwen had given a good sermon Sunday, and added we should have come home a week earlier to hear it.

She also stated that Ed Kinkema had finally proposed to Frieda Stille. After they're married they plan to open the Grand Haven Local Mortuary.

Well, here I am at the end of my tour. It looks as though a great many of the people in the class of '51 are well on the road to success.

Class Will

Be It Remembered, that we, the members of the CLASS OF 1951, of Grand Haven, in the County of Ottawa and State of Michigan, being of sound mind and memory, but knowing that the days of this class are few, do hereby make, execute, and declare this to be Our Last Will and Testament, in manner following:

I, Kenneth Ackerhof, leave my ability to get to school at the last minute to all those unfortunates who "have to see Schaubel."

I, John Angus, leave to make my fortune selling No-Nod pills to civics students.

I, Nancy Brant, leave to look up Mr. Hekhuis.

Not if I get started first — Sally Baker.

I, Al Baldus, leave my affection for "Terrible Ted" to Chuck Arnold.

I, Janice Barger, leave my ability to be on time for first hour study hall to Jerry Dillinger.

I, Eugene Barrows, leave all to Mr. Olsen.

I, Glenn Johnson, will my seat on the bench to one of next year's seniors.

I, Pat Kamhout, will my long and lovely curly hair to Glenn Bishop.

I, Craig Kammeraad, will my friendly smile to Jean Scott.

I, Donna Katt, leave my personal attitude towards school to someone who thinks it is fun.

I, Ed Kinkema, leave my big feet to Butch Jenkins.

I, Rose Kline, will my A's in shorthand to Dotty Kozicki.

I, Ed Klukos, will the fun of calling people "knucklehead" to my brother, Bob.

I, George Kruizenga, will my laugh to a horse.

I will if you will, Elwood Leslie.

I, Nancy Lubben, will my position as first chair bassoon to Irene Ruster.

I, Peggy Lyons, will my job as student director of the senior play to anyone who thinks he can do the sound effects of a body (Jim Skidmore) falling down stairs.

I, Donna McFadden, will my ability to complete high school in four years to anyone on the five-year plan.

I, Jackie McLellan, will my feet to anyone with poor understanding.

I, Stewart McLinda, will my bowling scores to the girls' league.

I, Ace McReynolds, leave the "oogling" to the seniors of next year.

I, Relma Mabry, leave — I hope.

I, Rita Mahder, the only girl in third hour trig class, leave for a girls' school.

I, Janet Meyers, will my first chair in band to Dick Hall.

I, Fred Miles, leave all my dates to my brother, Duane.

I, Agnes Miller, leave with my five girl friends to join the sixth.

I, Connie Modrack, will my baton to my sister, Marge.

I, Lois More, leave "Baby Doll" to Johnnie Butcher.

I, Andrew Nelson, leave my love (??) of school and my industriousness (??) to Jim Tripp.

I, Joann Noordhof, leave my ability to keep quiet to Joan Scott.

I, Shirley Oltman, will my long hair to Lynn Jannsen or any other brush cut.

I, Marian Overzet, will my modesty to some future nurses' aide.

I, Ray Pavlin, leave my timely remarks to Jerry Ackerman.

I, Sandy Pellegrom, will my ability to drive the advertising staff to insanity to some junior who has so many friends he can afford to lose some.

I, John Peterson, will my ability to get along with teachers to Mary Kinkema.

I, Shirley Prahin, leave my past behind me.

I, Tom Puleo, leave all my abilities to my sister, Delores.

I, Marge Quimby, will my membership in and presidency of Thespian to Kay Olsen.

I, Ken Retzlaff, will my "slipstick" to anyone who wants to make a fire.

I, Sandy Rooks, will my clock watching during school hours to next year's class.

I, Herman Rycenga, will my bed to any student who needs extra sleep.

I, Jim Sabo, will my seat in Miss Bell's American Problems class to some smart student.

I, Augusta Schroeder, leave my ability to argue to some shy freshman.

I, Chuck Scott, will all the freshmen girls to Ron Braak.

I, Len Scott, leave hoping that everyone may enjoy his four years of high school as much as I have.

We, Mary and Marilyn Sietsema, leave all the confusion we have caused to Marilyn and Marjorie Swartz.

I, Verne Simpson, will my red hair to Joe Stalin.

I, Marilyn Sims, leave my seat near Mr. Hekhuis' desk to some boy-crazy junior who wants to fall in love.

I, Jim Skidmore, leave my high percent of errors in physics experiments to Lynn Janssen.

I, Bob Snoek, will my name "Snoek" to a deserving pal.

I, Marlene Spencer, will my ride to school in the morning to anyone who has a boy friend without a car.

I, Jim Sprott, will my comp. and rhet. cards to someone Miss Nyland doesn't disallusion.

I, Violet Stang, will my gift of gab to Mr. Hicks who gives me most credit for it.

I, Frieda Stille, leave VanZantwicks' to some "lucky stiff."

I, Chester Stolarz, leave my monkey wrench to Mr. Overholt.

I, Betty Streeting, will my contrary disposition to Marilyn Matthews.

I, Nancy Strong, will my success at shorthand to Pat Urbanik.

I, Alice Sutcliffe, leave my slimness to "Crisco".

I, Jim Swart, leave my half of the jalopy to my brother, Bob.

I, Harold Swier, leave.

I, Howard Teasley, will my spudnuts in Mr. King's class to Bill Boomgaard.

I, Harrison Tiemann, leave — (What's the use of thinking about it — I don't want to leave anything).

I, Mary Tinholt, will my physics book to any unsuspecting junior girl.

I, Sharon Toxapeus, leave this immortal place.

I, Loretta Tuin, leave my long bus rides to school to Susan Kennedy.

I, Bob Urbanik, leave all my girl friends to Dick Peel.

I, Wayne Van Dongen, leave my ambition to my brother, Gene.

I, Nelson VanLeeuwen, will my ability to skip to anyone who can get along with Mr. Schaubel.

I, Marvin VanWeelden, will my gum to Miss Edge.

I, Casey VerBerkmoes, leave to go fishing as I have so often in the last four years.

I, Irene VerDuin, will my civics book to the Indians.

I, Jim Vickers, leave my hot rod Ford to Miss Gwinn.

I, Ethel Vozar, bequeath my devilish ways to Barb Prelesnik.

I, Lois Mae Wagenmaker, will my seat in typing to someone who likes to sit near Mrs. Thoma.

I, Jack Eugene Weatherbee, leave my car to Marian Snoek if she is foolish enough to want it.

I, Earl Williams, leave my pipes to Elsa Peterson.

I, Jerry Wipperfurth, leave my ability to get zeros in Miss Kerton's class to Jack Van Schelven.

I, Jim Wray, leave my job reading water meters to Matt Pellegrom.

I, Mary Grace Yemc, leave Mr. Chojhowski in peace.

I, Gene Yonker, leave for the Army.

I, Delores Young, will my seat in the flunkers' row in civics to anyone who doesn't have the tests.

I, Don Zant, will my beard to the Thespian Society.

I, Caroline Zuidema, will my presence at all football and basketball games to another loyal fan.

We hereby appoint G. V. Cohrs and Helen M. Bell of the faculty of Grand Haven High School executors of this our Last Will and Testament.

In Testimony Whereof, we have hereunto set our hand and seal this nineteenth day of April, in the year one thousand nine hundred and fifty-one.

The Class of 1951

Dear Diary:

From 8:15 A.M. to 3:30 P.M. from Monday through Friday, the classes go on. Juniors and their chem, sopha and history, frosh are all wrapped up in their algebra. Although they have dreamed of becoming seniors someday, they should realize that some of their best days are spent as underclassmen. And they should never forget those days as long as the live, so just remember those days as

ANNUAL BOARD

Dear Diary,

One of my noisiest activities (but one of the busiest) is the Annual Board. It always seems that one section is far behind the other, but seniors are seniors! . . . . . Seems sometimes we spend more time looking at pictures and talking than anything else, but boy! . . . . those scissors are flying all the time. Got some good faculty snaps; those photographers are really kept busy all the time. The freshmen are lucky getting the best annual their first year. I had to wait four years . . . (sigh) . . . for this.

Left: The staff gives a final glance at the book before it goes to press.

Right: It can't be as funny as that!

STUDENT COUNCIL

Dear Diary,

It looks as if we might have a good Student Council after all. A couple of the representatives told me that our council was represented in the Michigan Council meets again this year . . . Oh! Really enjoyed myself at the free dance given by the Student Council at the Elk's Temple, February 24. (Free popcorn too.) Maybe there's going to be a school carnival again this year. Hope so . . . 'cause that's where I met my "dream girl" last year. Good luck, council!

NEWSPAPER STAFF

Dear Diary,

We received our first copy of the Buc's Blade today. There were some good news stories and a few funny ? ? ? jokes. The "Blade" also has a calendar of current events which keeps me posted on the games and dances. We certainly are proud of our paper, and I'm waiting to see what I'll find in the next issue.

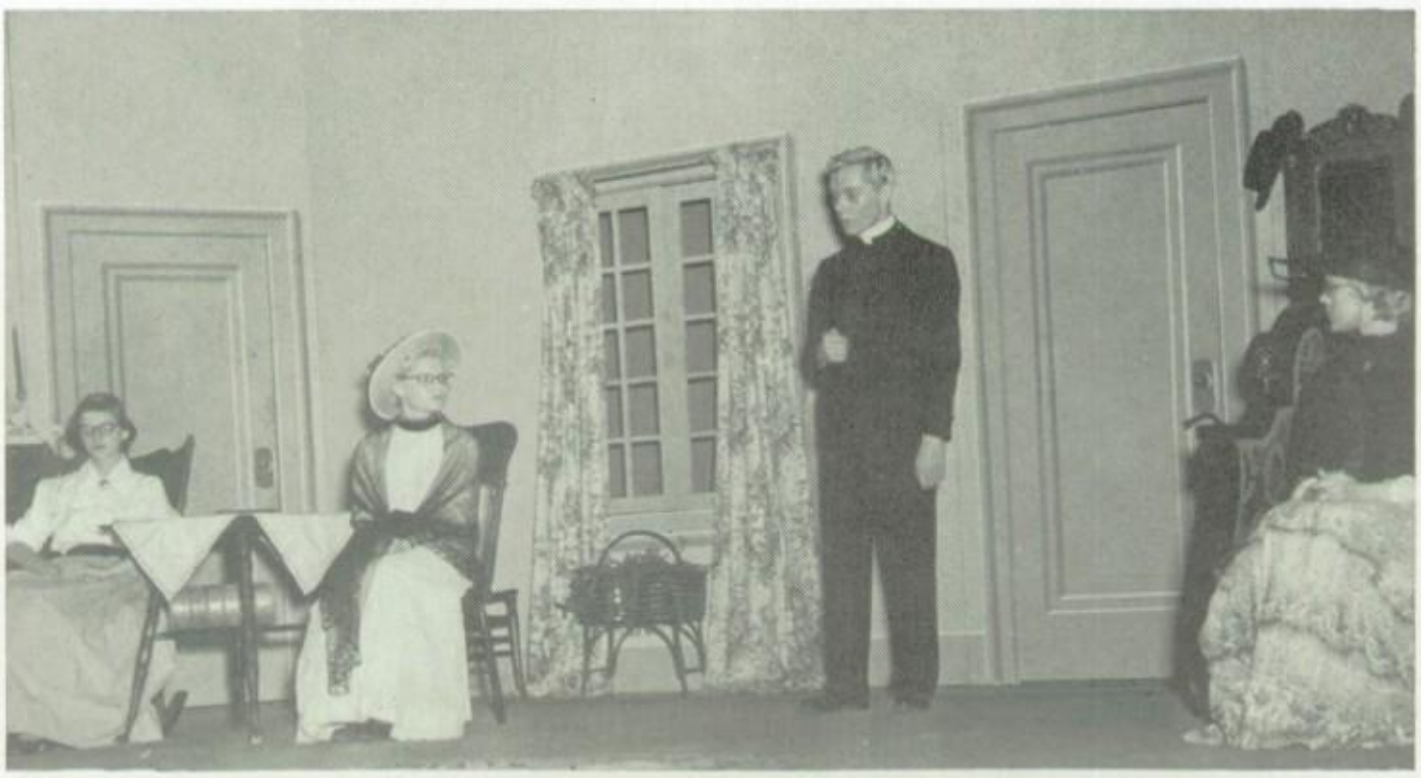
SENIOR PLAY

Dear Diary,

Certainly am glad I saw the senior play this year. I have never seen costumes similar to those used in "One Foot in Heaven" — How about that outfit little Georgie wore? And that old furniture! — what antiques!

I surely was lucky to have a seat reserved down in front. (There was such a crowd again this year.) Everybody did a good job, and I really learned a lot about the life of a minister's family in the "dark ages."

Sometimes I wonder what would happen to a play if there weren't so many people ready to get in there and work on all those crews!



"Ladies, please . . . "

THESPIAN SOCIETY

Dear Diary,

We have accomplished quite a bit this year. Homecoming was a real success! We gave one-act plays in our school, in North Muskegon, and in Muskegon High School. April 14 we competed in a state-wide one-act play festival at Central Michigan College at Mount Pleasant and were given a high rating. A large number of us became eligible for National Thespian again this year. We bought some new make-up equipment and some stairs leading up to the stage.

HI-Y

Dear Diary,

Just came from a swim at the Y. M. C. A. We've had a very interesting year. Several men, Mr. Murdick, Mr. VanZantwick, Dr. Jordon, and Mr. Van Opynen, have spoken to us about their work. During the football games, we ran the concession and gave large contributions to CARE, polio, and the Salvation Army. I had a swell time at the dances we sponsored. It was plenty cold on our sleighrides, but we boys managed to keep warm. (That feminine touch, you know.) I'll hate to see this year end.

THE SENIOR HIGH SCHOOL BAND

Dear Diary,

Boy, do we have a band!!! . . . a first division in district ccmpetition again this year . . . and that's not all . . . a FIRST DIVISION IN STATE. Doesn't seem possible that the kids are outstanding in marching (at the football games) and concert playing, too. The band is proudly upholding the great name of Grand Haven and is certainly worthy of all the cheers we can give it . . . . . B-A-N-D . . . U-rah-rah!

THE SERVICE CLUB

Dear Diary,

Most of the kids have a hard time finding books in the library, and that's where we come in. We also service our classmates by keeping the halls quiet so that they can study in a peaceful atmosphere! By the way — "Do you have a slip?" — "Where's that overdue book?"

NURSES' AID

Dear Diary,

Golly, I'm so tired. I worked in the hospital from 12 to 6, but I had a swell time giving back rubs, making beds, and such. Just think, I've put in 291 hours — only 9 more to go! The Christmas party was loads of fun. We have all acquired some cooking skill too. I can hardly wait to go on in training next year — a step closer to becoming a nurse. I want to say "thanks" to Mrs. Munro sometime. She's done a lot for us.

Jan Mulder washes the face of her patient (or is it victim)?

JUNIOR PLAY

Dear Diary,

Just returned from the Saturday performance of "A Little Honey." What a packed house! — and was that grandma a scream! She saved the day for the Mintons. Wasn't that little puppy cute? Scoots' jumping frog turned up in the most unexpected places. Oh, and how about Albert, the "super-charger," and the Sure Shot Man! Yes, the juniors had a production to be proud of.

RETAIL-OFFICE CLUB

Dear Diary,

Wasn't Chicago fun? "South Pacific" proved to be great entertainment, and Patricia Stevens surely gave us girls some good hints.

Our trips to Herpolsheimer's and Wurzburg's too were very worthwhile. In the winter, Chuck Scott and Rose Kline were our delegates to a state meeting in Battle Creek where they learned lots about what other clubs are doing. Later a group attended the state convention at Ann Arbor.

Remember that hay ride? I surely had a good time.

Dear Diary,

Oh dear! Just came from G. A. A. Boy, what a gang of healthy, peppy girls! You've never seen girls who could shoot a basket or hit a ball so well. We're going to start baseball now. I hope that I'll have as much fun as I did at volleyball, basketball, and badminton.

If it were not for our advisor, Miss Nussdorfer, the organization would be a flop. She really is a swell buddy. We have about 75 girls in G. A. A. Hope there are as many out next year.

BOYS' BOWLING

Dear Diary,

It's certainly been fun bowling every Wednesday. I got my first "turkey" to give me high game today. The Spares were the first play-off champs, but it looks as if the Fast Ballers will take the second schedule. Keen bowling competition makes this one of my favorite activities.

CHEERLEADERS

Dear Diary,

Yeah, Grand Haven! Come on, Team, Fight! Sounds familiar? Of course, those are the cries of our cheerleaders. The group, which was composed of six girls and three boys, kept the crowd yelling even when the going for the team was rough. The kids were really enthusiastic . . . got to every game, too.

Besides leading yells for dear old Grand Haven High, the varsity squad was invited to cheer for the Michigan-Indiana game at Ann Arbor. They also sponsored the Wooden Shoe Clomp to earn money for new uniforms for the boys.

Miss Nussdorffer should get a big cheer for the help she has given them.

FOOTBALL of '50

"Bucs Edge Out Ludington"

The opening game of the season was an offensive battle from the start with the Buccaneers edging out a spirited Ludington team 13-12. A throng of football fans saw the Bucs roll 73 yards to a touchdown in the final five minutes of play. They came from behind to defeat the Orioles for the eleventh straight year. Center Bob Urbanik stood out on the line, stopping Oriole ball carriers in their tracks.

"Bucs Overpower Mighty Benton Harbor"

A charging Grand Haven team jolted the Tigers with a 14-6 victory, won by smooth-working team play. Benton Harbor scored the first touchdown, but the Buccaneers found their offensive strength in the fourth quarter when they scored two touchdowns, which thrilled the many local fans. Klukos and Kamhout each scored a touchdown on exciting long sprints. Fullback Swart booted both extra points. This was the upset game of the season for the Buccaneer squad.

"Big Reds Too Much for Bucs"

Before a record-breaking crowd of over 7,000, Grand Haven suffered its worst defeat in thirteen years. The Bucs couldn't stop Muskegon's speedy ball carriers and deadly accurate passing attack. The Grand Haven Bucs made a real threat in the final quarter by going down to the Muskegon 9-yard line, but the Bucs just couldn't keep the drive rolling. The final score was 35-0.

"Kalamazoo Barely Beats Bucs"

The Kalamazoo Giants beat the Buccaneers 20-13 with a big first half advantage after trailing 20-0 at the half. The Bucs came back with some real snap in the second half, piling up 173 yards to Kalamazoo's 114. Pat Kamhout provided the most spectacular play of the game. On the Buc two-yard line with just three minutes left in the game, Pat received a screen pass and raced 98 yards for a Grand Haven touchdown.

Kamhout hits again

Another one against Ionia

"Bucs Wallop Ionia"

Almost every player got into the act in Grand Haven's 34-0 win over Ionia. It was the highest score rolled up by a Buccaneer squad since 1947. The Ionia Bulldogs were in trouble all evening, while the Bucs scored five touchdowns, marked by great team play and aided by excellent running support from the backfield. The whole team shone, but Clancy Laman was the boy who made the yardage, piling up 220 yards to his credit in the first half.

"Heights Trim Bucs"

In this game the Bucs were off their usual form and were beaten by the Tigers 32-7. The Bucs failed to stop the Heights charging line and the speedy halfbacks, who kept the Tigers out in front all night. The Buccaneers started to click offensively as a team in the fourth quarter, scoring a touchdown. The drive started with a 44-yard sprint off tackle by Laman and was completed by a touchdown pass from Dick Berg to Clancy Laman. However, this spark came too late in the game.

"Lansing Eastern Pass by Bucs"

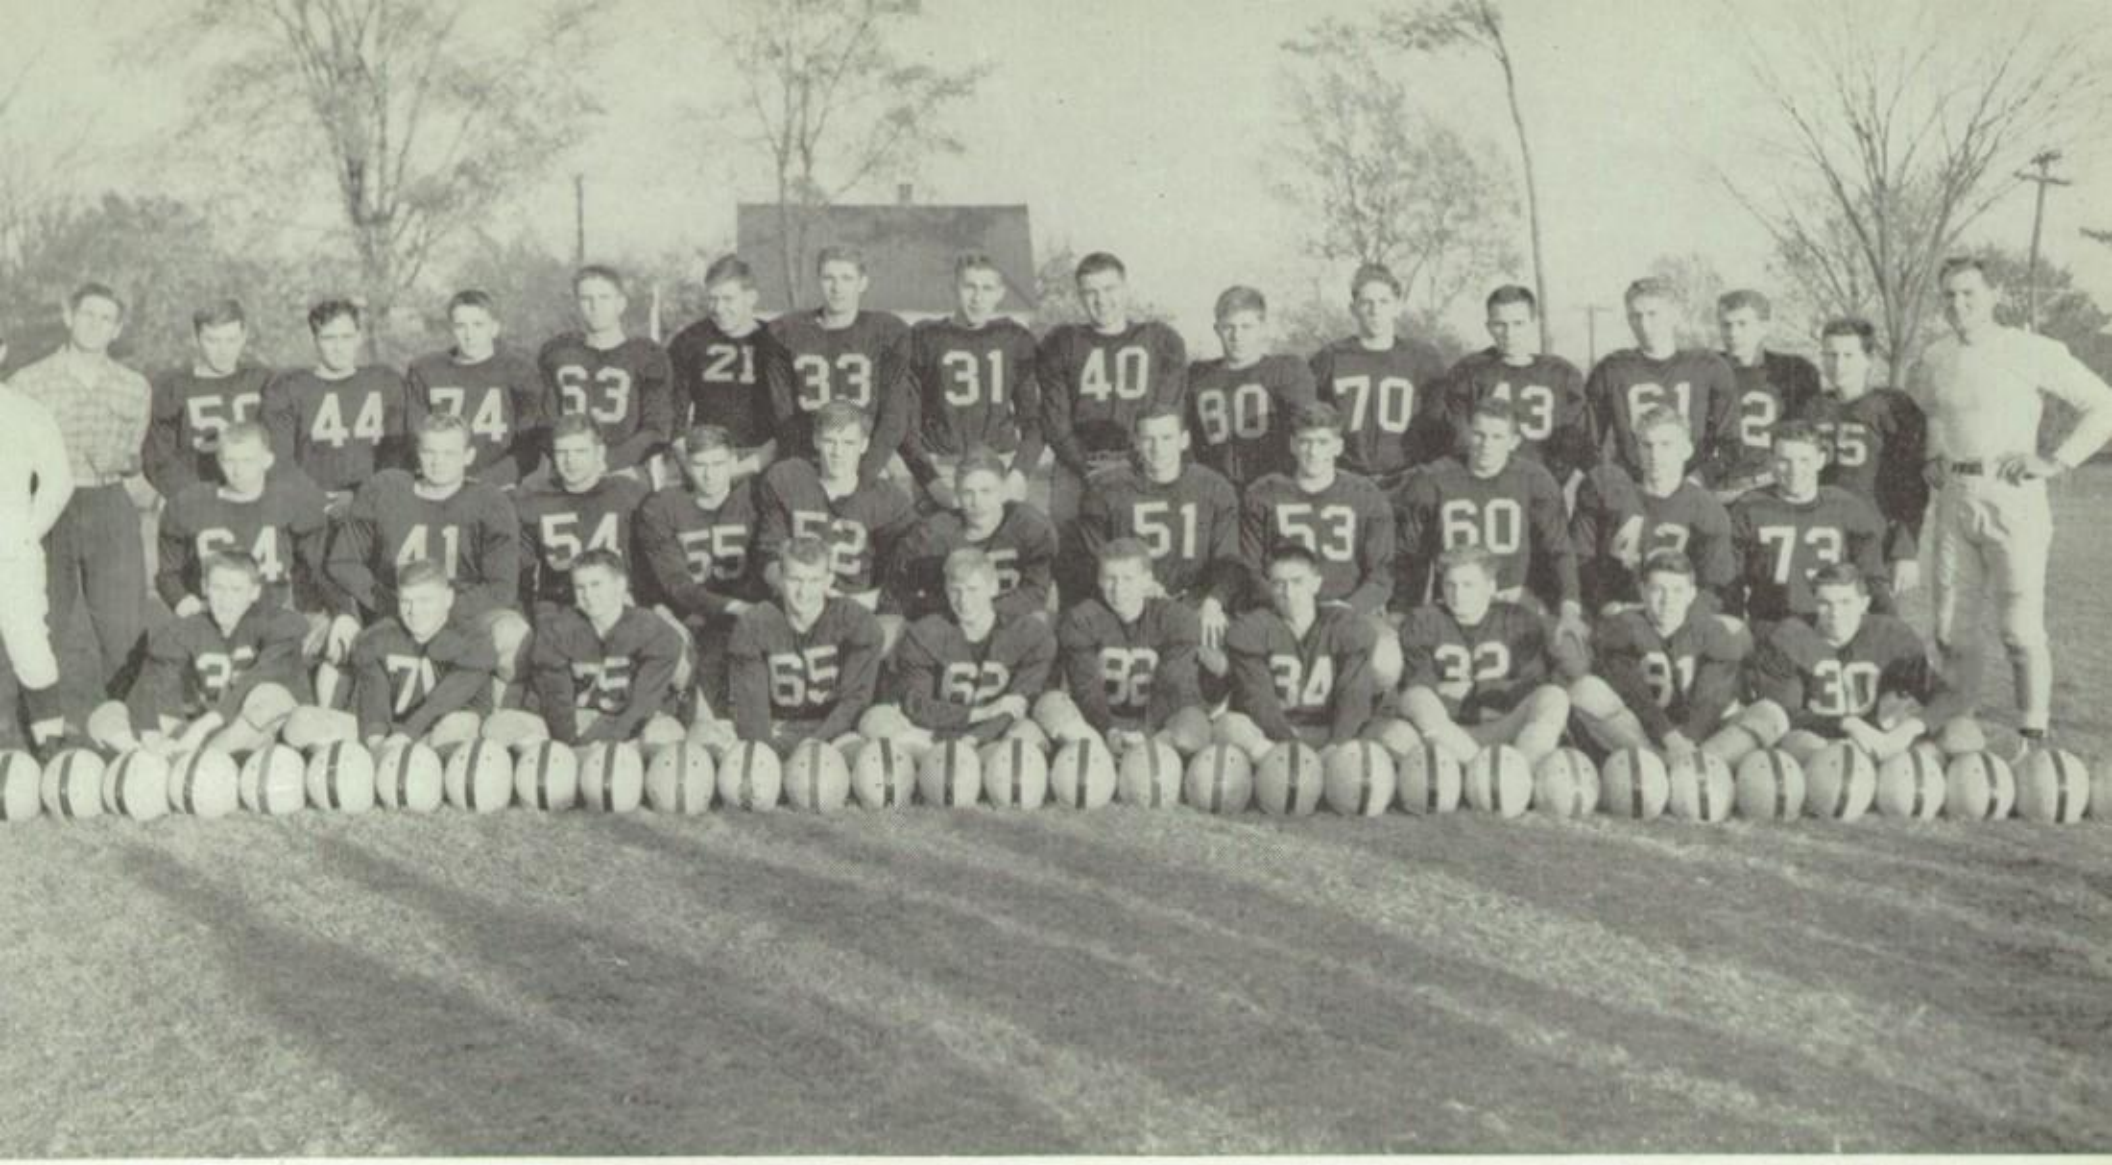
Two touchdown passes made by the Lansing Eastern Quakers in the first seven minutes of play were enough for a winning score of 14-7 over a perplexed Buccaneer squad. However, the Bucs got back on their game and held their opponents scoreless for the remainder of the game. The Bucs' backfield also found its passing ability in the fourth quarter with Pat Kamhout taking Dick Berg's pass over for our lone touchdown. It was heartbreaking for the Bucs to lose the homecoming game.

"Midland Overwhelms Buccaneers"

Midland's skillful crashing line paved the way for their 21-0 victory over an unrelenting Buccaneer squad. It was a biting cold night, and the game was marked by fumbles from chilled hands — Grand Haven fumbled six times to Midland's five. The persistant Bucs drove deep into Midland's territory twice during the game but failed to score a touchdown. Kamhout and Pope were the standouts on the line, with Berg and Butcher making some nice tackles in the secondary.

"Holland Beats Bucs by Narrow Margin"

The injury-ridden Grand Haven squad played one of its best "team" effort games of the season but were edged out by Holland 14-6. Even in defeat, the Bucs still looked like a real team and gave everything they had until the final whistle. It would be hard to pick stars on the Buc line because everyone did a great job in filling his post. The backfield also played a bang-up game despite the fact that three regular halfbacks — Laman, Klukos, and Butcher — were sidelined with injuries.



First row — Jim Sprott, Don Shears, Jerry Wipperfurth, Tom Streng, Clarence VerBerkmoes, Richard Bethke, John Butcher, Kenneth Stillson, Don Harvey, Dan Burnside.

Second row — Norm DeVecht, Al Baldus, Glenn Johnson, Jay Casemier, Dick Berg, Marvin Buckner, Ed Klukos, Ken Buikema, Nick Essenyi, Don Brems, Harry Parcheta.

FOOTBALL-1950

The Grand Haven Buccaneer grid machine, coached by Ted Kjolhede and Jim Hicks, terminated the 1950 turf season with a record of three victories and six defeats. The Bucs won a stunning victory over Benton Harbor in their lone conference win of the season. The Bucs also nipped Ludington in the opener and trimmed Ionia later in the year.

Although the Blue and Gold eleven won only a single fray in the conference, four players won berths on the All-Conference team. The four honored were Pat Kamhout, end; Clarence Laman, halfback; Marv Buckner, guard; Captain Bob Urbanik, center.

The Buccaneers were ranked as the top "B" eleven in Michigan after winning its first two games. Then the gridders moved into the killer schedule and could only garner one other triumph during the year. Even with only three victories, the aggressive Pirates were recognized as one of the state's top "B" powerhouses.

The scrappy Bucs finished the season with an outstanding performance at Holland, but lost the battle of the "Woodenshoes", 14-6.

The 1950 contingent will be remembered for its all-out, never-say-die effort, competing in Michigan's most austere conference.

SECOND TEAM FOOTBALL-1950

The second team football record for 1950 can be considered successful not only in games won and lost but also in the caliber of individuals who made up the team. They knew how to be gracious but not contented losers. There was a marked improvement shown in each game played, and so the team reached its peak in the final game with a larger and good Holland team. Grand Haven completely dominated the play in a bitter wind with snow and rain mixed in.

There were few individual standouts on the team. There was keen competition for all positions, and team spirit and determination had more to do with success than any individual's ability. It was a forty-six man team. Several of the players will make their presence felt on the first team in another year.

Harry Noordhof, who helped coach the team, is now in the Army Air Force and will be missed greatly next year.

BASKETBALL '50 '51

Bucs Open Season with Win

Grand Haven's skill in shooting baskets defeated South Haven 43-33. Accurate long shots and some slick work under the baskets kept the Bucs in the lead throughout the initial game of the season.

Bucs Defeat Holland Christian

The sharp-shooting Buccaneers won their second straight game, defeating Holland Christian 50 to 44. The Bucs made their shots count and maintained a lead throughout the game.

Bucs Make Third Straight Win

A smooth working Buccaneer team beat a trying Coopersville team 53-46. Again it was basket shooting skill that paid off in a third straight win for the Bucs.

Heights' First Quarter Lead Beats Bucs

With the advantage of a high scoring first period, the Tigers kept rolling to beat the Bucs 47-34. The Buccaneers came back with a strong third period by scoring 17 points, but failed to overcome the Heights' lead.

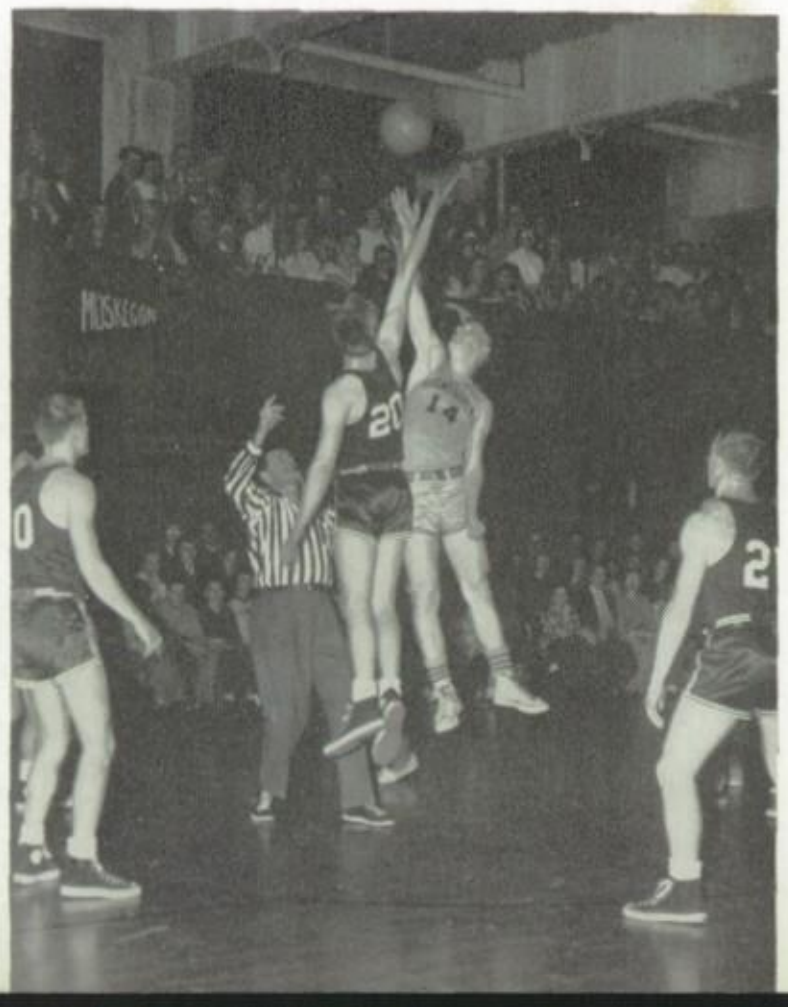
Kalamazoo Breezed by Bucs

The Bucs failed to keep up with a tall, smooth-working Kalamazoo team. The Grand Haven team held a brief lead in the second quarter but found it too difficult to stay ahead of a determined Kalamazoo squad. The final score was 59-36.

Bucs Easily Beat Whitehall

The Buccaneers opened the 1951 part of the season with an easy, 59-42, win at Whitehall. The Bucs played a fine game all the way, but were really "hot" in the final period when they hit the basket for 21 points.

Berg fighting for Grand Haven



Grand Haven Nips Holland

The alert Buccaneers came from behind to defeat a favored Dutch team 48-47. The whole team played an aggressive brand of ball from start to finish in their first Southwest Conference win of the season.

Aggressive Benton Harbor Defeats Bucs

A victory-hungry, close-guarding Benton Harbor team defeated the Buccaneers by a score of 48-38. The Bucs held a brief tie with the guest opponents but never matched the Tiger scoring until a too-late final quarter.

Muskegon Edges Out Bucs

The lead changed hands twelve times in a tense nip-and-tuck battle between Grand Haven and Muskegon. The game could have gone either way, but the Reds nipped the smooth-working Bucs 42-41.

Kazoo Tallies to Beat Bucs

The sharp-shooting band of Buccaneers came close to an upset of the season with their half-time lead of 30-22 over Kalamazoo. However, doom came when Kalamazoo scored 23 points in the third period and continued on to win 50-42.

Heights Trim Bucs

The hustling Tigers came from behind to trim the Buccaneers 50-28. Grand Haven had an early lead, but the Tigers came back with a strong second half and took the ball game from the Bucs.

Determined Holland Beats Bucs

Avenging an earlier defeat, Holland took Grand Haven 55-41 in the usual tense and bruising county classic. The Bucs cut Holland's lead many times but just couldn't keep up with the Dutchmen's quick shooting.

Bucs Wallop Benton Harbor

Stinging from an earlier defeat, the Grand Haven team blossomed out into a fast scoring machine and thumped Benton Harbor 66-45. The Buccaneers passed the ball with snap and accuracy, made numerous dog shots, and controlled the ball throughout the game.

Bucs Beat Holland Christian Second Time

Accurate free throw shooting gave the Bucs a 44-43 win over Holland Christian. The Holland team made 18 field goals to Grand Haven's 17, but they couldn't make their free shots count.

Muskegon Defeats Bucs Second Time

Speed, control, and accurate shooting won Muskegon a 64-46 victory over Grand Haven. The Bucs played well but couldn't match the speed shown by the Big Reds. The Buccaneers displayed accuracy at the free throw line, making 14 out of 23 shots.

First row — Bill Holman, Glenn Johnson, Dick Berg, Bob Klukos, Chuck Arnold, Jay Casemier.
Second row — Coach Sluka, Frank Nusbaum, Nick Essenyi, Craig Kammeraad, Pat Kamhout, Roger Wester, Hank DeVecht, Manager.

FIRST TEAM BASKETBALL

Coach Steve Sulka turned out a hard fighting, well balanced team for the 1950-51 season. The team was developed from four letter winners and some very good juniors coming up from the reserves.

In the conference games the Bucs failed to make on outstanding showing, winning two games and losing eight. But this was nullified by the sharp and quick playing in the non-conference games. The Bucs won all five of the non-conference games, giving them a season total of seven wins and eight losses.

Even though the Bucs ended the season in the cellar with Benton Harbor, the Bucs were represented in the top five scorers and in the all-conference team by sharp-shooting Dick Berg.

RESERVES BASKETBALL

Grand Haven's Little Bucs ran up an impressive record of five wins against non-conference foes during the 1950-51 court season without a defeat. Their record for the year showed a total of six wins against nine defeats.

The Reserves of Coach Ted Kjolhede, composed mainly of freshmen and sophomores, claimed a 37-36 victory over the Kalamazoo Central Little Giants as their only Southwest Conference victory of the season.

Jack Van Schelven, Little Buc guard, led the Reserves in scoring with 141 points for the season in 15 games. Norm DeVecht followed with 74 points.

BASEBALL

Forty-five enthusiastic boys turned out for baseball when Coach Sluka gave the call this season. It is the best ball team Grand Haven has had in four years. So far this season, they have an unusually fine record of seven wins out of ten games. Freshman Bill McPhee has turned out to be one of the best all around catchers we have ever had. We will be seeing a lot more of him. Dick Berg has done some excellent pitching this year and will be back next year. This team has a bright future as there are only three seniors on the starting team — Kamhout, Puleo and Holzinger.

Second row: Coach Rothi, Earl Wills, Duane Miles, Budge Sherwood, Jerry Dillinger, Fred Borchers, Bob Clink.

TENNIS

The Buc's tennis squad under the coaching of Gene Rothi began the 1951 season with 14 men, 5 of whom are returning for action from past years. The returning netmen are Jim Sprott, Don Harvey, Marv Van Weelden, Jerry Dillinger, and Bob Clink. The remaining 9 are just beginning their climb through the ranks and should develop into a fine net team.

First row: Art Nettnin, Dave Johnson, Glenn Doering, Harold Van Burgel, Fred Frickman, Bill Munch, Bill Barger, Harold Keech, Bill Prince, Al Baldus.

TRACK

The Grand Haven track squad is composed of a group of hard working boys. This fact is brought out by the consistent manner in which they have broken the current high school records. They have operated under many handicaps, but in spite of this the team has garnered more points and has given improved performance with each passing year since the sport was revived in 1949. Next year Grand Haven can expect improvement from this squad which is composed largely of under-classmen.

A few of the high point getters and outstanding performers are Robert Urbanik, Robert Snoek, Don Zysk, Ron Metzler, Wynne Oslund, John Koppel, Harry Parcheta, and Harold Keech.

TUMBLING

Tumbling was a new attraction this year. Thirty-five boys started out to master the art, and at the end of the season, twelve had mastered the more difficult stunts. They have given exhibitions for a high school assembly, Spring Lake Junior High, Grand Haven Junion High, and a thrilling exhibition on "Gus Cohr's Night." Mr. Ward already has requests for exhibitions next year. All of these boys will be back next fall, and many more seem to be interested in this new sport.

Handstand in front: Glenn Bishop.
Bottom row: Dick Poel, Marv Buckner, Don Payne, Fred Bolthouse.
Second row: Jerry Dillinger, Melvin Dalman, Fernon Feenstra.
Third row: Fred Goldberg, Carl LaRue.

GOLF

Being a very active man, Mr. Ward also revived golf in Grand Haven High School. Out of fifteen boys who turned out for this popular sport, eight fellows have been playing all season. The three regulars on the team are Don Bolthouse, Chuck Arnold, and Ray Suchecki. Up to the present, the team has an even record of two wins and two losses. They have done fine this year and expect to do better next year as the whole first team will be back.

We extend congratulations to Mr. Ward for doing so much in one semester to build up our sports program.
